Off THE BEATEN PATH IN NORTHEAST FLORIDA!

1. Amelia Island Museum of History
   231 South Third Street • Fernandina Beach, FL
   904-261-7378 • www.ameliamuseum.org
   View artifacts showcasing 4,000 years of island history with exhibits on Timucuan Indians, Spanish missions, the Civil War, Florida railroads, and the turpentine industry.

2. Kingsley Plantation National Historic Site
   1806 Palmetto Avenue • Jacksonville, FL
   904-356-3537 • www.nps.gov/foca
   Experience the site of the largest encampment of Confederate forces in Florida and the site of several Civil War encampments.

3. Mandarin Museum
   1196 Mandarin Road • Jacksonville, FL
   904-268-0784 • www.mandarinmuseum.net
   Explore a typical 1800s Mandarin homestead—farmhouse, barn, and ruins of 35 slave cabins operated by Zephaniah Kingsley as a cotton plantation between 1814 and 1837.

4. Camp Milton
   1275 Malema Road, N. • Jacksonville, FL
   904-630-3516 • www.campmilton.com
   Experience the site of the largest encampment of Confederate forces in Florida and the site of several Civil War encampments.

5. Estuarine Research Reserve (GTM Reserve)
   505 Guana River Road • Ponte Vedra Beach, FL
   904-823-4500 • www.gtmnerr.org
   View a large Indian burial mound with updated kiosk information and structures along with interpretive displays.

6. Mala Compra Plantation Archaeological Site
   West side of intersection of North Oceanohe Blvd (ALA) and Mala Compra Drive • Palm Coast, FL 386-347-0130
   Learn how archaeology is done at the site of General Joseph Hernandez’s early 19th-century (1816-1836) plantation, where you can see remains of coquina structures along with interpretive displays.

7. Fort Caroline
   1745 Main Street • St. Augustine, FL
   904-829-2015 • www.floridastateparks.org/bulowplantation
   Explore the ruins of a 15th-century (1562-1565) plantation including a coquina sugar mill, the foundations of the manor house, slave cabins, wells and a spring house.

8. Bulow Plantation Ruins Historic Park
   1801 Old Kings Road • Palm Coast, FL
   386-537-2015 • www.floridastateparks.org/bulowplantation
   Explore the ruins of a 19th-century (1821-1836) plantation including a coquina sugar mill, the foundations of the manor house, slave cabins, wells and a spring house.

9. Samuel Butts Youth Archaeological Park
   301 Belleview Avenue • Daytona Beach, FL
   386-631-3422 • www.ci.daytona-beach.fl.us/cityhall/parks/parks.htm
   Come walk the 29-acre park, read panels interpreting prehistoric and historic sites in this Daytona Beach neighborhood, and listen to Mr. Butts on push-button voice kiosks.

    150 Sansa Avenue • New Smyrna Beach, FL
    386-478-0052 • www.nbhistory.org
    Learn about the history of New Smyrna Beach with exhibits on Native American sites and a gallery devoted to Turnbull’s Smyrna Settlement, home to 5,200 indentured Minorcan, Greek, Italian and Corsican settlers between 1768 and 1777.

11. Cruger-DePeyster Sugar Mill Ruins
    600 Old Mission Road • New Smyrna Beach, FL
    386-478-0052 • www.nsbhistory.org
    View beautiful coquina arches and the remains of an 1830s sugar mill.

12. Dunlawton Plantation Sugar Mill Ruins
    950 Old Sugar Mill Road • Port Orange, FL
    386-369-2375 • www.dunlawtonconservegardens.org
    Investigate the coquina and brick ruins of an 1850s sugar mill complex and assortment of sugar mill processing equipment, located within a lovely botanical garden with dinosaur statuary.

13. Hontoon Island State Park
    2309 River Ridge Road • Deland, FL • 386-736-5309
    Learn about the history of New Smyrna Beach with exhibits on Native American sites and a gallery devoted to Turnbull’s Smyrna Settlement, home to 5,200 indentured Minorcan, Greek, Italian and Corsican settlers between 1768 and 1777.

14. Hontoon Island State Park
    2309 River Ridge Road • Deland, FL • 386-736-5309
    Delve into Native American life through the museum’s archaeological exhibits and hike out to the shell mound.

15. Blue Spring State Park – Thursby Mound
    1510 West French Avenue • Orange City, FL
    386-735-3663 • www.floridastateparks.org/bluespring
    Walk through an 1872 pioneer house sitting atop an ancient Indian shell mound.

16. Camp Milton
    1275 Malema Road, N. • Jacksonville, FL
    904-630-3516 • www.campmilton.com
    Experience the site of the largest encampment of Confederate forces in Florida and the site of several Civil War encampments.

17. Kingsley Plantation National Historic Site
    1806 Palmetto Avenue • Jacksonville, FL
    904-356-3537 • www.nps.gov/foca
    Explore a typical 1800s Mandarin homestead—farmhouse, barn, and ruins of 35 slave cabins operated by Zephaniah Kingsley as a cotton plantation between 1814 and 1837.

18. Mandarin Museum
    1196 Mandarin Road • Jacksonville, FL
    904-268-0784 • www.mandarinmuseum.net
    Explore a typical 1800s Mandarin homestead—farmhouse, barn, and ruins of 35 slave cabins operated by Zephaniah Kingsley as a cotton plantation between 1814 and 1837.

19. Estuarine Research Reserve (GTM Reserve)
    505 Guana River Road • Ponte Vedra Beach, FL
    904-823-4500 • www.gtmnerr.org
    View a large Indian burial mound with updated kiosk information and structures along with interpretive displays.

20. Mala Compra Plantation Archaeological Site
    West side of intersection of North Oceanohe Blvd (AL) and Mala Compra Drive • Palm Coast, FL 386-347-0130
    Learn how archaeology is done at the site of General Joseph Hernandez’s early 19th-century (1816-1836) plantation, where you can see remains of coquina structures along with interpretive displays.

21. Fort Caroline
    1745 Main Street • St. Augustine, FL
    904-829-2015 • www.floridastateparks.org/bulowplantation
    Explore the ruins of a 15th-century (1562-1565) plantation including a coquina sugar mill, the foundations of the manor house, slave cabins, wells and a spring house.

22. Bulow Plantation Ruins Historic Park
    1801 Old Kings Road • Palm Coast, FL
    386-537-2015 • www.floridastateparks.org/bulowplantation
    Explore the ruins of a 19th-century (1821-1836) plantation including a coquina sugar mill, the foundations of the manor house, slave cabins, wells and a spring house.

23. Samuel Butts Youth Archaeological Park
    301 Belleview Avenue • Daytona Beach, FL
    386-631-3422 • www.ci.daytona-beach.fl.us/cityhall/parks/parks.htm
    Come walk the 29-acre park, read panels interpreting prehistoric and historic sites in this Daytona Beach neighborhood, and listen to Mr. Butts on push-button voice kiosks.

    150 Sansa Avenue • New Smyrna Beach, FL
    386-478-0052 • www.nbhistory.org
    Learn about the history of New Smyrna Beach with exhibits on Native American sites and a gallery devoted to Turnbull’s Smyrna Settlement, home to 5,200 indentured Minorcan, Greek, Italian and Corsican settlers between 1768 and 1777.

25. Cruger-DePeyster Sugar Mill Ruins
    600 Old Mission Road • New Smyrna Beach, FL
    386-478-0052 • www.nsbhistory.org
    View beautiful coquina arches and the remains of an 1830s sugar mill.

26. Dunlawton Plantation Sugar Mill Ruins
    950 Old Sugar Mill Road • Port Orange, FL
    386-369-2375 • www.dunlawtonconservegardens.org
    Investigate the coquina and brick ruins of an 1850s sugar mill complex and assortment of sugar mill processing equipment, located within a lovely botanical garden with dinosaur statuary.

27. Hontoon Island State Park
    2309 River Ridge Road • Deland, FL • 386-736-5309
    Delve into Native American life through the museum’s archaeological exhibits and hike out to the shell mound.

28. Blue Spring State Park – Thursby Mound
    1510 West French Avenue • Orange City, FL
    386-735-3663 • www.floridastateparks.org/bluespring
    Walk through an 1872 pioneer house sitting atop an ancient Indian shell mound.

Explore Archaeology

Historic Fort
Historic Lighthouse
Explore Archaeology

Off THE BEATEN PATH IN St. AUGUSTINE!

Mission of Nombre de Dios and Shrine of Our Lady of Leche
27 Ocean Avenue • St. Augustine, FL
904-824-2809 • www.missionandshrine.org
View the 208-foot cross commemorating Pedro de Menendez de Aviles’s landing in 1565, the first parish Mass, the first Shrine to the Blessed Virgin Mary, and the first Spanish Mission in America. See artifacts—including Menendez’s casket—on display in the Mission’s museum.

St. Photios Greek Orthodox National Shrine
41 St. George Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-8205 • www.stphotios.com
Visit the shrine and exhibit dedicated to the Greek colonists who fled to St. Augustine after the failure of the 1768 New Smyrna settlement.

St. Augustine Lighthouse
85 Lighthouse Avenue • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-3575 • www.flaglerlibrary.org/history/MalaCompra/project.htm
Explore life during the early 1700s at the Gonzalez-Alvarez House, the oldest remaining Spanish Colonial home in Florida. While there, visit an ornamental garden and witness St. Augustine’s history in two museums and a changing exhibition gallery.

Fountain of Youth Archaeology Park
11 Magnolia Avenue • St. Augustine, FL
1-800-356-8222 • www.fountainofyouthflorida.com
Learn about the founding of St. Augustine by Spanish Conquistadors and the Timucuan Indians who first welcomed them.

Cubo Line/Visitor Information Center
Intersection of Cordova and Orange Streets
St. Augustine, FL • 904-829-6830 • www.historicstaugustine.com/csq/info.html
Walk the Cubo Line, a palm log and earthen wall built by the Spanish in 1808 as the City’s defensive fortification connecting the Castillo, the City Gate, and the Santo Domingo Redoubt.

Ximenez-Fatio House
20 Aviles Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-3575 • www.ximenezfatiohouse.org
Visit the most excavated property in St. Augustine and see the Caravaca Cross.

Mission of Nombre de Dios and Shrine of Our Lady of Leche
27 Ocean Avenue • St. Augustine, FL
904-824-2809 • www.missionandshrine.org
Visit the exhibit dedicated to the Greek colonists who fled to St. Augustine after the failure of the 1768 New Smyrna settlement.

Cuba Line/Visitor Information Center
Intersection of Cordova and Orange Streets
St. Augustine, FL • 904-825-6830 • www.historicstaugustine.com/csq/info.html
Walk the Cubo Line, a palm log and earthen wall built by the Spanish in 1808 as the City’s defensive fortification connecting the Castillo, the City Gate, and the Santo Domingo Redoubt.

Ximenez-Fatio House
20 Aviles Street • St. Augustine, FL
904-829-3575 • www.ximenezfatiohouse.org
Visit the most excavated property in St. Augustine and see the Caravaca Cross.

For more information on Florida archaeology visit www.FLARCHAEOLOGY.ORG