

West Central & Central Regional Centers

January/February/March 2015

Jeff Moates, Director

West Central

Becky O'Sullivan, Public Archaeology Coordinator II

Kassie Kemp, Public Archaeology Coordinator I

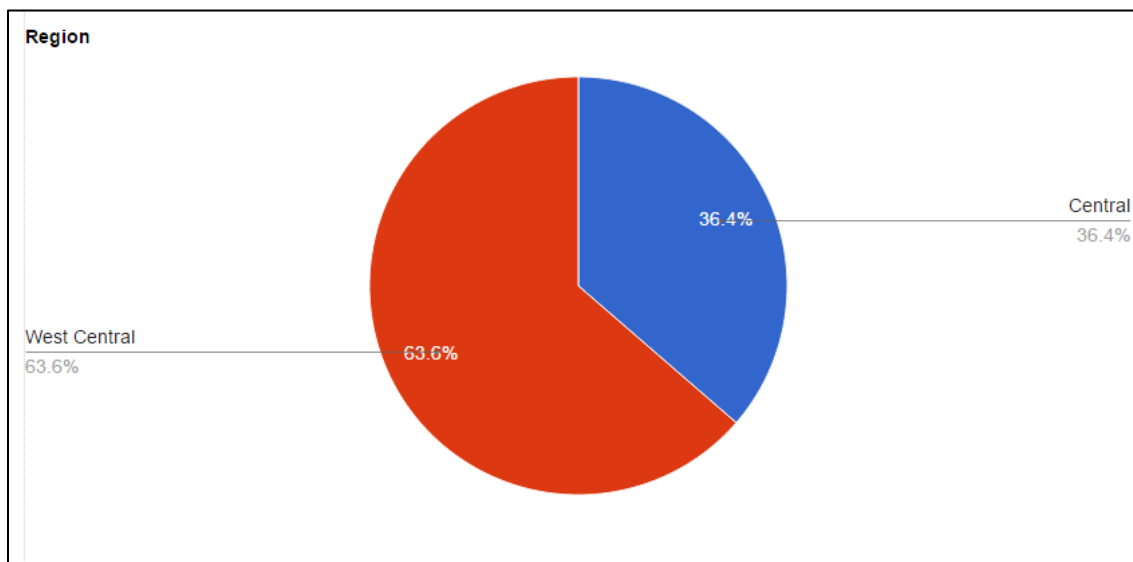

Brittany Yabczanka, Outreach Assistant

Central

Nigel Rudolph, Public Archaeology Coordinator I

Paula Specht, Outreach Assistant

Percentage of Events by Region

Total Activities by County

County	Top results
Pinellas	16
Citrus	13
Hillsborough	11
Sarasota	9
Manatee	6
Other in Florida	6
Alachua	5
DeSoto	2
Hernando	2
Marion	2
Lake	1
Levy	1
Other outside Florida	1
Polk	1
Sumter	1

Types of Activities/Total Number of People Served

Event Type	Top results
Presentation/Lecture	23
Meeting	19
School/Youth Program/Workshop	12
Other - explain in notes	8
Festival/Infobooth	5
Site Visit or Fieldwork	5
Adult Training/Workshop	3
Site Visit	1
Traditional Media (TV, radio, print)	1
Number of People
	3944

FPAN Staff participated in 77 distinct events/activities during January-March 2015 serving a total of 3,944 individuals in Florida archaeology outreach and education.

Quarter Highlights

- Hired new Outreach Assistant for Central Region office. Paula Specht is a graduate of the University of Florida and lives in Ocala. Paula has completed graduate coursework in Physical Anthropology at the University of Montana.
- Installed new exhibit mural and coordinated museum opening of Ancient Sunset, a painted mural on canvas depicting a day in the life of the people who once lived at the Crystal River Village and Mound Complex. The mural is open for public viewing at the Crystal River Archaeological State Park Museum.
- Conducted shovel testing and remote sensing survey of possible shipwreck site at Cape Romano, Collier County, Florida. Together with Dr. Jennifer McKinnon of East Carolina University and the ECU advanced methods graduate class, FPAN staff and students surveyed along the shoreline and nearshore waters of Cape Romano.

Mural Artist, Marcia Moore, standing with the mural Ancient Sunset in her studio in Stuart, FL.